

MORNING OFFERING

Lord Jesus, I stand here , under the cross with your Mother Mary, and offer you all my prayers, deeds, joys, and problems of this day. I place all my pains, tasks, sufferings, frustrations, humiliations, and persecutions at the foot of your cross.

I join these with all the prayers, liturgies, and personal sacrifices of people acting in your name throughout the world, in the hope, my day in Christ, will help make up for wrongdoing, and diminish the power of evil.

○ Lord, because you are alive in me, please enliven by your infinite merits, any good I do, and add it to the treasury of the saints, joined and enlivened by your all sufficient earnings on the cross.

Give me the grace to offer each moment as it happens, and let all the events of my day rise as prayers for the well-being and needs and protection of my loved ones, and for your people everywhere, especially for the spread of the gospel, the dissipation of evil, the coming of your kingdom and the special intentions of your Pope and church leaders.

Praised be God. Amen. Alleluia.
