

ACT OF UNCONDITIONAL HOPE

Praise, honor, and glory to you, Abba Father, my God and Creator. Your love and mercy are everywhere. You, who sent Your Divine Son to be our Brother, May Your Fatherhood be more apparent in my life. I am totally indebted to you for everything I have, and everything I am. Even from the debts of the hell I deserve, I would still owe you love, praise and thanksgiving, simply for the privilege of being Your creation; I would still be totally indebted to you. You Lord, would still be my God and Creator. No one can escape this truth. But happily, I need not fear hell. You, Lord, have created me well. You made me in Your own image and likeness. By Your grace it is easy to come to You. I am filled with thanksgiving. Lord, I would like to love you with the same unconditional love you have for me, yet I need your grace to love even just a little. I need you, but I want to love you for more than my needs. Even if you cast me aside and forget me, like broken pottery, I would still want to love and praise you. I would still want to help build your kingdom. By the gifts you have given me just today, I already have more than I deserve for life. Even in the fear and pain of Hell, by your favor I wouldn't lose hope or turn from you. I know you love me. By Your grace, I would still praise and thank You. Weak and sinful as I am, I accept your forgiveness. Undeserving as I am, I accept your love and salvation. There is no way I could earn your love. There is no way I could pass a test to deserve your salvation. It is only by your grace that I can stand before you, or even dare think of you. I have no rights before you, for I am the product of your hand. I deserve no good. You have every right to do with me as you please. All I am and all I have is pure gift of your love and mercy. How happy for me, I need not fear. My hope rests in what your Son, Jesus, did for me. Your love and mercy have no limits. You have saved me. You have made me worthwhile. Because of your love I am someone special. Because of you my life has meaning. Because of your plan for my life, I am important. Because of the strength you share with me, I have the strength to follow your plan. By Your grace I can overcome all dangers. In Your Name, I can defeat all evil. My heart overflows with love; my mind with thanksgiving. I know my God loves me and I can depend on his promises. I trust my Lord and Savior with my life and eternity. I have an everlasting home in Heaven. Blessed be Your name, Abba Yahweh, my God. Jesus Christ, Son of God, My Brother who is one with the Father, You do have mercy on me a sinner. Jesus Christ, my Redeemer and my Lord, I give myself to you. Holy Spirit, God of the Trinity, Let Christmas happen in my heart. Father God, be praised forever. Thy Kingdom come O Lord. Maranatha! Come Lord Jesus. Hallelujah Amen, Yes Lord, Amen.
