

ACT OF UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

Praise, honor, and glory to you my God, and Creator. Your love and mercy are everywhere. Even in the debts of Hell, you Lord, would still be my God and Creator. I would still owe you love, praise and thanksgiving and everything I am or have; I would still be totally indebted to you. Lord, I would like to love you with the same unconditional love you have for me, yet I need your grace to love even just a little. I need you, but I want to love you for more than my needs. Even if you cast me aside and forget me, like broken pottery, I would still want to love and praise you. I would still want to work for your kingdom. By the grace you have given me just today, I already have more than I deserve for life. Even in the fear and pain of the debts of Hell, by your grace I wouldn't lose hope or turn from you. I know you love me. Undeserving as I am, I accept your love and salvation. Weak and sinful as I am, I accept your forgiveness. There is no way I could earn your love. There is no way I could pass a test to deserve your salvation. It is only by your grace that I can stand before you, or even dare think of you. I have no rights before you, for I am the product of your hand. I deserve no good. You have every right to do with me as you please. All I am and all I have is pure gift of your love and mercy. How happy for me, I need not fear. My hope rests in what Jesus, your son, did for me. Your love and mercy, Lord, have no limits. You have saved me. You have made me worthwhile. Because of your love I am someone special. Because of you my life has meaning. Because of your plan for my life, I am important. Because of the strength you share with me, I have the strength to follow your plan. My heart overflows with love; my mind with thanksgiving. I know my God loves me and I can depend on his promises. I trust my Lord and Savior with my life and eternity. I have an everlasting home in Heaven. Blessed be the name of the Lord. Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me a sinner. Jesus Christ, my Redeemer and my Lord, I give myself to you. Holy Spirit be my guide. Abba Father, be praised forever. Thy Kingdom come. Come Lord Jesus. Hallelujah, Amen
