

What is Christianity?

Christianity has rightly been called, God's correction of the worldly view of reality. It is the true concept of what really is, as revealed by the creator of all that really is. That's why Christianity cannot be simply listed as one of the great world religions. Only Christianity is the guaranteed Word of the source of all truth. The scriptures of the world religions are not the inerrant Word of God. Only the Jewish and Christian scriptures can claim that and only Christianity has the completeness of God's inerrant revelation.

Jesus Christ is one eternal God with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Christianity, as fully embodied in His original and protected Church, is the on going work of the risen Jesus Christ, visibly alive among us. He delivers the benefits He earned on the cross for our salvation. He offers this to all who believe enough to follow Him. Our Creator wants all humans to choose to spend eternity in intimate fellowship with Him. That's why He created us in the first place, and that's why He invented Christianity.

The groundwork for Christianity began with the creation and fall of our human species. Christianity is the direct continuation and fulfillment of what began with Adam and Eve and developed among the Hebrew tribes. This story was inspired and recorded inerrantly in the Old Testament. Catholic Christianity is the completion and fullness of God's revealed truth and plan in the Old Testament.

Christianity can only be what the revealer of Christianity meant it to be. The fullness and guarantee of what God intends Christianity to be is found only in the one visible world wide Church founded by Jesus Himself with His apostles. What Jesus founded cannot be re-founded by man for any reason.

What is Christianity? It is the two thousand year old, One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church led by authentic bishops united to the Chair of St. Peter. This is the only true Christianity as founded by Jesus. Our Catholic Church is the Body of this Risen Christ, alive and sacramentally visible, delivering His Word and merits, world wide until He comes again in glory. All else falls short.
