

Sword's you Draw

Lyrics By Michael Mondloch inspiration from Ephes 6:10-20

G

C

Draw your sword the time has come to go to the front and fight

G

C

Our struggle is not with flesh and blood our struggle is only for right

G

C

Draw your sword and come to the battle, the Devil will wish he stayed home

D

C

G

Shod your feet in the gospel of peace and quench the arrows he throws

F

C

Arm yourself with pray and supplication, pray every day, every hour

C

G

The holy spirit will surely protect you if your loins are gird with his power

C

Open you mouth with the spirit of boldness, the gospel will surely pour fourth

D

G

The Holy Spirit will help with your struggles and give courage new birth.

G

C

Draw your sword the time has come to go to the front and fight

G

C

Our struggle is not with flesh and blood our struggle is against the night

G

G

Draw your sword and defeat the Devil do what is good in God's sight

G

D

G

Put on the armor of God so you can do battle and fight.

C

We are all ambassadors in chains when we fight against the world

D

G

Go forth and make known the gospel, teach everyone his word

C

Open my mouth dear Jesus and make your words pour forth

C

G

Give me courage and boldness, help me stay the course

G

C

Draw your sword the time has come to go to the front and fight

G

C

Our struggle is not with flesh and blood our struggle is only for right

G

C

Draw your sword and come to the battle, the Devil will wish he stayed home

C

G

Shod your feet in the gospel of peace and quench the arrows he throws
